JUST CRUISING AROUND

With Jay Powell

SOMETHING UNUSUAL, UNIQUE, and designed especially for all us putter-arounders has been added to the recreational facilities of this area.

ROADIUM THEATRE PARK, 2500 Redondo Beach Blvd., Grand Opens the "World's Most Unusual, Unique Miniature Golf Course, Saturday and Sunday, May 19 and 20.

Eighteen holes of exciting putt-putting which should thrill young and old alike.

Dale Gasteiger, Roadium manager, spared none of his artistic imagination in designing a course which offers every type of shot, amid fairyland scenery.

The golf course being within the theater grounds insures a choice of entertainment for all members of the family. If Papa is somewhat sours on the heavy screen romance that Mama is enthralled by, he can quietly slip away and play a quick 18 holes before the movie is over (and before Mama comes out from under the spell of love and kisses).

Or if the youngsters are restless and tired of watching a movie that is too grown up for them, the Roadium will "baby-sit" them on the golf course.

See how thoughtful Mr. Gasteiger is about your comfort and convenience. Arrangements can also be made to entertain birthday and other party-ers.

Be sure to stop in to see this delightful golf course. This Saturday or Sunday would be a swell time. Clowns and free balloons, plus two games for the price of one, are extra attractions. Lets have fun at the Roadium.

FRIED CHICKEN DINNER for only 69 cents. Including salad, potatoes, vegetable and roll. All this, plus smiling service, can be yours—if you clip out the Tower Drive-In ad on this page.

Laura and Dave Zorger, managers at the Tower, would like to have you-all come see their nice restaurant. So they are offering this super-special to make it worth your while.

Roller Derby Set For Today at Western Oval

John Agar's Hollywood Stars will skate in the opening game of the National Roller League outdoor season against Roger Schroeder's Detroit Devils tonight at Western Speedway, 139th at Western, Gardena. The game will start at 8 p.m.

This will mark the first appearance of the Stars outdoors since John Agar, prominent motion picture and TV actor took over the ownership of the National Roller League club last week.

Superb dining and private party facilities are available to local cruise-outers as well as to the world wanderers.

"LEAGUE OF GENTLEMEN" an outstanding British comedy about crime, will be presented at 7:15 and 9:15 p.m., Friday evening, May 18, at the El Camino Campus Theater, Crenshaw and Redondo Beach Blvd.

This second film in a series of five sponsored by Cinema Limited in association with El Camino College is a sardonic screenplay by Bryan Forbes, who also stars in the picture.

The play is under the direction of Basil Dearden who is well-known for his "Sapphire." The crime itself is played straight for suspense rather than laughs. A sort of "Rififi" with a British accent.

Altogether it provides good entertainment, with taut suspense and inserted comedy for relief.

The game this evening will be the first appearance of major league National Skating Derby teams in the Gardena area. In the coming weeks, all of the National Roller League teams will play regularly scheduled league games at Western Speedway.

Coach "Spec" Saunders of the Hollywood Stars, will field a colorful team. "Spec" and most of the members of his team have skated all over the world and have drawn the plaudits of the fans everywhere. Saunders held the world's professional speed skating championship for seven years in a row. On the men's team are many of the finest stars of the game, including the handsome Bill Bobo, former national AAU wrestling champion and Compton College student.

On the distaff side, the Stars will field quite an array of talent. The Captain is Georgiana Kemp and she is joined by such all-time Roller Game stars as Marge Forrest, Betty Boyd, Judy Frame and the former New York model and showgirl, Shiela McKenna.

Coach Roger Schroeder's Devils are considered one of the toughest defensive teams in the National Roller League. Roger Schroeder and Roy Brewer are two of the heaviest men in the skating game today. The Devil attack is led by Captain Jerry Rapp and Gil Mora, two of the highest scorers in the NRL.

CLAREMONT: "Ofrenda a San Ysidro" is current Pasadena Hills Theater attraction.

OJAI: Sixteenth annual Ojai Music Festival will be held May 18 through 20.
